

Event profile: Changing the Face of Human Rights

We provided selected services to the client's in-house event organiser.

Client	British Institute of Human Rights (BIHR)
Venue	British Library
Duration	One day
Invites	Flyers and emails distributed by the client
Delegates	Academics, actors, artists, community representatives, journalists, lawyers, NGO workers, politicians and public officials
Numbers	Fully subscribed with over 200 delegates.
Speakers	Senior politicians, journalists, academics, specialists in human rights.
Format	Plenaries, panel discussions and workshops.

For a fuller write-up of the event visit <http://www.bihar.org.uk/news/the-faces-of-human-rights-are-explored-the-british-institute-of-human-rights-conference>

The event was managed in-house by BIHR while we:

- Designed and printed the conference flyer
- Managed the conference website including online booking
- Handled online payments and invoicing
- Confirmed booking and distributed joining instructions
- Produced personalised badges and programmes
- Printed and assembled the delegate packs.

It's our job to make your event a success: If you are organising a conference and need a hand give us a call on 0845 130 2038. We are experienced, flexible and friendly.